

Deputy Dean for International Relations were officially invited to give a special lecture and discussed about academic collaboration at School of Pharmacy, Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta

June 20, 2013

Assist.Prof.Usa Chaikledkaew, Deputy Dean for International Relations, Faculty of Pharmacy, Mahidol University were official invited to give a special lecture at the international conference on 'Towards a Good Health Insurance System' for academic staff as well as graduate students at the School of Pharmacy, Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta, Indonesia on June 20, 2013. In this occasion, she also had a great opportunity to discuss with Dra.Sri Kadarinah, Head of School of Pharmacy, Faculty of Medical and Health Science about collaborative activities between two institutions in the future.