

WVU students completed their international rotation

November 1st, 2016

On November 1st, 2016, Assoc. Prof. Surakit Nathisuwan, Deputy Dean for Planning and Quality Development, along with Assoc. Prof. Busba Chindavijak, Acting Deputy Dean for Administration and Human Resources, Assist. Prof. Mullika Chomnawang, Deputy Dean for Research & International Relations, and Dr. Farsai Chanjaruporn attended the exit presentation and evaluation delivered by two exchange students from School of Pharmacy, West Virginia University, USA. The students visited MUPY to participate in the international rotation focusing on clinical pharmacy and healthcare system in Thailand during October 11th – November 2nd, 2016.