

MUPY welcomed the delegate from The University of Iowa, USA

November 9th, 2016

On November 9th, 2016, MUPY executives and faculty members led by Assoc. Prof. Busba Chindavijak, Acting Deputy Dean for Administration and Human Resources, and Assist. Prof. Mullika Chomnawang, Deputy Dean for Research & International Relations hosted a reception for Prof. Dr. Bernard Sorofman from College of Pharmacy, The University of Iowa, USA. The purpose of his visit was to discuss about mutual collaboration between two institutions. Furthermore, he had a chance to introduce graduate programs of College of Pharmacy, The University of Iowa to MUPY undergraduate students who were interested in higher education after their graduation next year.