

Special lectures by Spanish guest lecturer

September 4, 2019

On September 4, 2019, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Mullika Chomnawang, Deputy Dean for Research and International Relations, together with Assoc. Prof. Dr. Chutima Phechkrajang provided a warm welcome to Dr. Jordi Cruz Sanchez, a guest lecturer from the Autonomous University of Barcelona, Spain. The purpose of his visit was to give special lectures entitled 'Basic Chemometric Tools for Industry 4.0 Applications' and 'An Approach to NIR-Chemical Imaging' to MUPY faculty members and graduate students. A fruitful discussion regarding mutual collaboration was then held in order to strengthen a strong network between two institutions.
