

MUPY hosted a reception for the Delegation from Nihon Pharmaceutical University, Japan

January 30, 2020

On January 30, 2020, MUPY's executives led by Assoc. Prof. Dr. Mullika Chomnawang, MUPY's Deputy Dean for Research & International Relations, hosted a reception for the delegation, namely Prof. Dr. Yoko Kubota and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Naoto Uramaru, from Nihon Pharmaceutical University (NPU), Japan. NPU's delegates officially visited MUPY to discuss a mutual collaboration in terms of international internship and student exchange as three of 6th-year students will undertake their professional internship at NPU for three months from September until December 2020. Also joined the meeting included Prof. Dr. Varaporn Junyaprasert (Chair of Professional Practice Committee in Pharmaceutical Sciences Track), Asst. Prof. Supatat Chumnumwat (a member of Professional Practice Committee in Pharmaceutical Care Track), involved academic staff of both tracks, and three MUPY students.
