

Meeting on research collaboration with K-Agro Innovation Institution (KAI)

July 13, 2021

On Tuesday, July 13, 2021, from 04:00 p.m. to 05:00 p.m., MUPY's administrative team led by Assoc. Prof. Surakit Nathisuwan, the Dean, together with Assoc. Prof. Dr. Doungdaw Chantasart, Assistant Dean for Research and Innovation, and the faculty members attended an online meeting on the future research collaboration between MUPY and K-Agro Innovation Institution (KAI) via the Cisco Webex platform. The Meeting was hosted by MUPY's Division of Research and Innovation. The KAI has been supported by Kasikorn Bank to develop herbal products throughout the 'Nan Sandbox Program' which has been purposely created for the new economics for agriculturalists of Thailand's Nan province. The KAI also aims to establish a research collaboration with MUPY and would like to receive the faculty's technologies and innovation. Moreover, the KAI Institution will provide research funding support for the potential commercialized projects on medicine, herbal medicine, cosmetics, and supplementary food.
