MUPY joined the 4th Quality of Education Expo of the Phayathai Higher Education Institutes Network

August 4, 2021

On August 4, 2021, at 09.00 a.m., MUPY's Deputy Dean for Education, Assoc. Prof. Preecha Montakantikul, attended the "4th Quality of Education Expo of the Phayathai Higher Education Institutes Network" and the '2021 Quality of Education Expo of the Phramongkutklao College of Medicine'. Having been held at the Phramongkutklao College of Medicine and broadcasted via the Zoom Meeting platform, this year, the organizers of the event received honor from Prof. Dr. Prasit Watanapa, the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, to be an invited speaker for the topic of "Empowering our learners to be agents of change: A new challenge in health professional education". Besides, the event consisted of a panel discussion, exhibition on development of educational quality, presentation of academic works.