

MUPY students joined the 2022 Special Course on Filipino Language and Culture

July 13, 2022

On July 13, 2022, from 08.00 a.m. (Bangkok local time), three MUPY undergraduate students, namely Mr. Pongpipat Raksayod, Ms. Napassorn Ruttanakitpaisan, and Ms. Thanaporn Chuajetton joined the virtual exchange activity entitled “Teaching and Learning Training Module for Special Course on Filipino Language and Culture” virtually hosted by the Faculty of Pharmacy, University of Santo Tomas (UST), the Philippines, via the Zoom Meetings platform. Also joined this virtual event included twenty international students from Universiti Teknologi MARA, Management and Science University, and the University of Australia. This virtual exchange program was scheduled for four sessions during July 13-22, 2022, with the aims of 1) preparing international students for effective communication with their Filipino hosts and collaborators, 2) allowing the students to have a deeper sense of appreciation for our culture and identity, and 3) encouraging the students to adapt to the culture of the host’s institution. The courses were conducted by UST’s faculty members from the UST’s Department of Filipino as course facilitators. Furthermore, this online event served as the continuing inbound student mobility program for participating institutions amidst the global pandemic.
