

Visiting Professor from Josai International University, Japan

December 9, 2022

On December 9, 2022, at 10.00 a.m., Assoc Prof. Surakit Nathisuwan, the Dean of the Faculty of Pharmacy, along with Assoc. Prof. Dr. Korbtham Sathirakul and Assist. Prof. Jiraporn Leanpolchareanchai provided a warm welcomed to Prof. Dr. Yuichi Sugiyama, a visiting scholar from the School of Pharmacy, Laboratory of Quantitative System Pharmacokinetics / Pharmacodynamics, Josai International University, Japan. □□□□Prof. Dr. Yuichi Sugiyama was officially granted Mahidol University's 2023 Short-term Visiting Scholars to Work at Mahidol University. He then visited MUPY's Department of Pharmacy's to work with our faculty members in the Division of Pharmaceutical Technology in the period of December 7, 2022 until January 15, 2023. He also participated in an instruction for undergraduate students, graduate students, joint research projects, and other educational administration such as an invited speaker in a special lectures, seminar, co-authored publications, and academic advices to faculty members and students.□□□□In addition, this activity supported the Faculty's Missions in terms of producing graduates with equivalent quality to leading pharmacy institutions in Asia, equipped with morality and competency to serve the societal need as well as producing research and innovation that meets national and international standard. It also responded to the SDG's Goal 4th: Reduce inequality within and among countries and Goal 17th: Partnership for the Goals to strengthen the means of implementation and revitalize the global partnership for sustainable development.