

MUHTA & SEAP graduate students received awards in the 10th HTASiaLink Conference

December 2, 2022

On December 2, 2022, Mahidol University's graduate students in 'Health Technology Assessment Program' (HTA) and 'Social, Economic and Administrative Pharmacy Program' (SEAP) received research presentation awards in The 10th HTASiaLink Conference 2022 hosted by the Health Intervention and Technology Assessment Program (HITAP), a semi-autonomous research unit under Thailand's Ministry of Public Health, from November 30, 2022 to December 2, 2022, at Pattaya's Royal Cliff Grand Hotel in Chonburi province. The awardees are as follows. 1) Mrs. Nguyen Thi Ha, a doctoral degree student in HTA Program, received the 1st prize of the Best Poster Presentation Award from the research study entitled 'health Utilities in Patients with Chronic Hepatitis B: A Systematic Review and Meta-Analysis' under supervision of Assoc. Prof. Dr. Usa Chaikledkaew. 2) Ms. Natthakan Chitpim, a doctoral degree student in SEAP Program, received the 1st prize of the Best Poster Presentation Award in the field of Economic Evaluation from the research study entitled 'Cost-Utility Analysis of Molecular Testing for Tuberculosis Diagnosis in Suspected Pulmonary Tuberculosis in Thailand' under supervision of Assoc. Prof. Dr. Usa Chaikledkaew. 3) Asst. Prof. Tanawan Kongmalai, a doctoral degree student in HTA Program, received the 3rd prize of the Best Poster Presentation Award in the field of Evidence Synthesis from the research study entitled 'Systematic Review and Network Meta-Analysis of Novel Anti-Diabetic Agents in the Treatment of Non-Alcoholic Fatty Liver Disease' under supervision of Assoc. Prof. Varalak Srinonprasert. Related news: <https://pharmacy.mahidol.ac.th/en/activities/3363> More detail about our graduate programs: <https://pharmacy.mahidol.ac.th/en/study-graduate.php>