

Conference on Bioequivalence Regulatory & Practical Aspects

June 22, 2009

Department of Pharmacy, MUPY held a conference on Bioequivalence Regulatory & Practical Aspect during 22-23 June 2009. This important event aimed to provide latest knowledge and regulations related to bioequivalence study. This event is highly beneficial for both regulatory bodies and pharmaceutical industries alike. Speakers are top researchers and pharmaceutical scientist of MUPY and external experts. This event is highly successful with participants of over 350 persons. The success of this event highlights the leadership status of MUPY as the most trustworthy source of pharmaceutical knowledge in Thailand.