

MUPY held a training program to promote laboratory safety

Dec 18, 2009

On 18 December 2009, MUPY held a training program to promote implementation of safe laboratory practice at Room 606, Ratcharat Building. The core content of the program focused on the prevention and management of accidents in laboratory setting. Target audience were researchers, technicians of both MUPY and laboratory network.