

Asian Conference on Environmental Mutagens received worldwide attention.

Dec 15, 2010

The Second Asian Conference on Environmental Mutagens was successfully held during 15-18 December 2010 at the Dusit Thani Hotel in Pattaya. The conference grasped worldwide attention with over 300 participants from 30 countries participating in this event. Prof. Malyn Chulasiri, President of Thai Environmental Mutagen Society and Asian Association of Environmental Mutagen Societies presided in this meeting. Dean Chuthamane Suthisisang represented the Faculty of Pharmacy, Mahidol University as a co-host of this historic event.