

2011 MUPY Teacher appreciation day

June 02, 2011

MUPY with Student Association held a Teacher Appreciation day on 2 June 2011. This annual event is one of the main activities to promote relationship and understanding between faculty members and students. Several representatives from various organizations were invited to attend teacher appreciation day. Also, MUPY students were honorably supported in terms of scholarships provided by various sources.