

Congratulations to MUPY students who won the excellent award at the 7th Pharma IndoChina Conference

Dec 16, 2011

At the the 7th Indochina Conference on Pharmaceutical Sciences (Pharma Indochina VII): Advancing Pharmacy for ASEAN Community in conjunction with the Faculty of Pharmacy, Ho Chi Minh City University of Medicine & Pharmacy, Hanoi University of Pharmacy and Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia during December 14-16, 2011 at Arnoma Hotel, Bangkok, the awards were also given to oral and poster presentations and poster presentations in addition to lectures by experienced lecturers Both domestically and overseas in various fields. There were many students and attendants who participated into the award competition. Eight MUPY students from various fields have won the awards are as follows. The Field of Clinical Pharmacy / Social and Administrative Pharmacy: Ms. Ajjima Sarapakdi, a Master student in Clinical Pharmacy (Advisor: Assist. Prof. Surakit Nathisuwan), has won the best oral presentation award. Ms. Supalak Keereekhodhelp, a Master student in Pharmacology (Advisor: Assoc. Prof. Chuthamanee Suthisisang), has won the best poster presentation award. The Field of Natural products: Ms. Panida Pantong, a PhD student in Pharmaceutical Chemistry and Phytochemistry, (Advisor: Prof. Nuntavan Bunyaphatsara), has won the best poster presentation award. Ms. Pattamapan Lomarat, a PhD student in Pharmaceutical Chemistry and Phytochemistry (Advisor: Prof. Nuntavan Bunyaphatsara), has won the best poster presentation award. Field of Pharmaceutical Chemistry: Ms. Pattaporn Jaikhan, a Master student in Pharmaceutical Chemistry (Advisor: Assoc. Prof. Opa Vajraguptahas), has won the best oral presentation award. Mr. Sasawat Visansirikul and Ms. Sujintra Thairattanakul, the fifth year pharmacy students (Advisor: Assist. Prof. Kittisak Sripa), have won the best poster presentation award. Field of Pharmaceutics & Drug Delivery System: Ms. Nittaya Tresilwised, a PhD student in Pharmaceutics (Advisor: Assoc. Prof. Pimolpan Pithayanukul), has won the best poster presentation award. We very much congratulated all of the winners who have built a reputation and taken pride to our MUPY.