

MUPY Dean cordially welcome Dr. Patrick H. Lukulay from the USP Headquarters

Feb 01, 2012

Dean cordially welcomed Dr. Patrick H. Lukulay, Director of Promoting the Quality of Medicines Program (PQM) from USP Headquarters and Thai USP staff. Dr. Patrick also showed appreciation to MUPY for our kind co-operation in the pharmaceutical manufacturing training in both national and international levels. Moreover, they also had a meeting with our dean and staffs on the future project regarding the quality assurance on manufacturing in pharmaceutical industries especially in ASEAN countries.
