

MUPY graduate won the best oral presentation award from Infectious Disease Association of Thailand (IDAT)

Oct 16, 2012

Mr.Theerapong Monmaturapot , a Master student in Clinical Pharmacy (Advisor: Assist. Prof. Preecha Montakantikul, Assist. Prof. Piroon Mootsikapun MD. and Assist. Prof. Pramote Tragulpiankit) has won the best oral presentation award on the 37th annual conference of Infectious Disease Association of Thailand (IDAT) in the topic “A prospective, randomized, double dummy, placebo-controlled trial of oral cefditoren pivoxil 400 mg once daily as switch therapy after intravenous ceftriaxone in acute pyelonephritis: An interim analysis”. The abstract of this study has also been published in Journal of Infectious Diseases and Antimicrobial Agents 2011; 28(3); 231-232.